

For more than 75 years, RETORTE has been processing the raw material selenium at our site in Röthenbach a. d. Pegnitz. Depending on the area of application and the customer, we ensure the required level of quality without fluctuations and the appropriate processing. Benefit from our high performance, market-driven prices, excellent delivery availability, and compliance with the highest environmental standards. As a leading producer we provide our selenium products to customers from all over the world.